

BOTH SIDES ARE FIRM.

The Strike on the New York Central Railroad.

ENGINEERS ARE NOT IN IT.

The Passenger Service Resumed, but Trains Behind Schedule Time. Strikers Refrain From Outbreaks—Firemen are Out.

New York, August 10.—The complete paralysis of all traffic on the New York Central road, caused by the Knights of Labor when they struck their first blow Friday night, led them to believe that they could maintain the stoppage of the business on the roads of the company. They have not succeeded in doing it. It is evident that a general feeling of disappointment prevails among the strikers, though they will not admit this. They placed strong reliance upon the assistance of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who, according to many of the Knights, were to have taken a hand in the fight last night. Mr. Holland, himself, told a reporter yesterday afternoon that there was an understanding to that effect, but to-day he said he had heard nothing further about the matter, and could not tell what the Brotherhood would do.

A prominent member of the Brotherhood, however, to-day, said that the engineers were not to be in this strike. He added, should they be ordered out they would go. He did not think such an order would be given. The Brotherhood, said several others, remembers the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy strike, in which the strikers were taken by Knights of Labor, and are not over-anxious to help the Knights.

PASSENGER SERVICE RESUMED.

To-day the regular schedule passenger service of the Hudson River and New York Central and the Harlem roads was resumed, the only change being the consolidation of certain outgoing western trains. The southwestern limited, dated, and left at the southern end at 10:20 a. m. The North Shore limited, which was to have left at 4:50 p. m., was consolidated with the regular passenger train, and left at 6 p. m. All the other trains left on schedule time, and the local trains took passengers up the road as usual.

The service on the West Shore road, which was interrupted by a night, did not affect passenger traffic. The business was brought to a standstill, but the passenger trains ran as usual, and the freight trains were delayed. The through Boston train on the New Haven road left as usual. The 3 o'clock train of the afternoon carried on the Farago Post of Portsmouth, N. H.; Warren Post of North York, N. H.; and New York to New York, N. Y. The train was met by the G. A. R. celebration at New York.

Police Captain Melville, who is on duty at the Grand Central depot, reported everything exceedingly quiet. Not an ardent had been made, and the strikers had been seen around the depot, along the line or the road.

NO TROUBLE ANTICIPATED.

Though all necessary precautions are taken to nip any demonstration in the bud, he said, "I do not anticipate any trouble. It looks very much to me as if the whole thing will be over by Tuesday night. I am not, of course, speaking officially, but from general observation, I have seldom seen a more orderly crowd of strikers. There are no loungers around, and no gathering anywhere. The strikers are at their headquarters and do so quietly."

John J. Holland, the member of the Executive Board of the Knights, to-day said that he had nothing to impart, and was very uncomfortable. He had announced this afternoon that it had been decided to discontinue freight trains to their various destinations.

The following notice was posted in a conspicuous place in the vicinity of the depot:

"Persons seeking employment on the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad will please make application to the office of the Wagner Car Company."

The result was that applications were received by the score. By one of the officials it was said 150 men had been taken on.

Mr. Voorhees said he had received a number of applications from railroad men, and that he had taken them on at Pittsburgh and from men who came in the Erie yards, some even came from as far west as Chicago.

In the afternoon a circular was issued, which was as follows:

"It is the order of the Executive Board of the Knights of Labor that the strike on the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad be continued until further notice."

The press thanked by the strikers.

Master Workman Lee, of the strikers' District Assembly, arrived from Albany at noon to-day, and attended a meeting of the Knights this afternoon. More than 3,000 men were present. A resolution was adopted thanking the press of the country for the fair manner in which they had treated the strike.

At this afternoon meeting, the strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

At the West Shore road, the strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

The strikers were urged to maintain the strike until they had won their demands.

LUCAS WILL GET THERE.

Both Factions of the Party Want Him Slaved.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE.

Will Have to Come From the Second District—Hagans and Hoke the Prominent Contestants for the Nomination of Judgeship.

WASHINGTON, August 10.—As the time for the assembling of the State convention at Martinsburg draws near, considerable talk is heard here as to possible candidates for the Supreme Judgeship. There seems to be no doubt in any quarter that Lucas will receive the Democratic nomination. He himself has said that he will. He has said further that his nomination is a political necessity; that while neither faction of his party may desire it, still both factions will agree to shove him in this manner.

As it is conceded that the nomination belongs to the Second district, candidates on the Republican side from that district only are being discussed. So far the name most prominently heard here is that of Circuit Judge J. H. Hoke, of Morgantown. Second district men only are being discussed. The strongest candidates that could be named. They may have very strong support, and that he will come to the convention with an enthusiastic following. Judge J. H. Hoke's name has been heard very frequently, and is said to be a very strong candidate.

West Virginia's Debt.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 10.—According to the census bulletin issued this week, the West Virginia debt statement is as follows: No floating or bonded debt. Cash and funds on hand, $1,020,243.14, as against $256,300.82 in 1880. The statement for the thirteen Northern States is as follows: Bonded debt, $306,638,727.51, as against $120,402,545.58 in 1880. Floating debt, $230,738,987.96, as against $185,545,457.25 in 1880. Cash and funds on hand, $26,334,551.34, as against $18,470,772.82 in 1880. Total, $563,402,156.71, as against $324,500,414.90 in 1880. Excess of assets over debts, $236,954,562.02, as against $918,182.90 in 1880.

Wheeling Daily Appointed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 10.—Hon. J. D. Butts, one of the Commissioners from West Virginia to the Chicago World's Fair, has appointed Mrs. W. Newt Lynch, of Wheeling, a member of the fair, and has named her as the fair, with Mrs. G. W. Z. Black, of Jefferson county, as alternate.

A CONGRESSMAN'S LUCK.

Representative O'Donnell, of Michigan, Falls Heir to $250,000.

WASHINGTON, August 10.—In the morning mail of Representative James O'Donnell, of Michigan, there came a letter from Toledo in Spain. It was an official-like document and written in Spanish. Representative Hitt and Delegate Gentry, both of whom are expert Spanish scholars, together furnished a satisfactory translation. The letter contained the startling information that he had been made the legatee of the will of a deceased relative in Spain and of money thus left to him, an amount of $250,000 in American money.

The letter further stated that $70,000 had been placed in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.

Mr. O'Donnell stated to his friends that he had been told that the money was in the hands of the O'Donnell in Paris, and requested him to appear in Spain at an early day as possible to take the necessary legal steps to secure the money. The letter was written by a priest, and was accompanied by the official seal of the Archbishop of Toledo.